Delivery of the Pictures shall be by such technological means as Distributor may determine with Licensee bearing the responsibility of receiving the signal. In the event Licensee does not receive the feed(s) provided by Distributor, then Licensee shall request additional delivery by Distributor, and Distributor shall provide either an additional feed or delivery by videocassette, at Distributor's election. In either event, the cost thereof shall be the responsibility of the Licensee.

Licensee shall notify Distributor of each preemption and rescheduling. In the event that Licensee should preempt any telecast of the Picture(s), Licensee shall use best efforts to broadcast said Picture(s), including the commercial announcements sold by Distributor, within the broadcast window for the applicable Picture indicated in Schedule A. In the event that Licensee is unable to broadcast said preempted Picture(s) within the broadcast window, then Licensee shall broadcast Distributor's commercial announcements in a mutually agreed-upon program in a comparable or better time period(s) within the broadcast window as indicated in Schedule A.

All rights not explicitly granted by Distributor herein are reserved without holdback.

Licensee understands that Distributor reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to accept or reject this offer for any reason whatsoever and may, in addition to this offer, require Licensee to provide financial documents or other evidence of creditworthiness in form and substance satisfactory to Distributor.

This offer is subject to approval by an executive officer of Sony Pictures Television Inc. ("Distributor"). When this offer is approved by Distributor, it shall then constitute the entire valid and binding agreement. Distributor shall be under no obligation to deliver the pictures to licensee until such time as this offer is fully executed by distributor.
